America was rockin' back in the '60s when the Siegel-Schwall Blues Band burst on the concert scene like a blues bombshell, receiving worldwide acclaim for their purist approach to the blues. The band has more than a dozen albums to their credit, including a reunion concert CD, hailed as "stellar" by Billboard Magazine. The legendary bluesmen are regrouped and on the road again, performing Saturday, Nov. 13 at the Dennos Museum Center in TC.

-- Uncorking The Blues Traverse City, Dennos Museum Center -NMC. Innovative blues harmonica master, Corky Siegel, brings the legendary Siegel-Schwall Band to TC. Out of Chicago, this band has made significant historical contributions by introducing blues to a wider audience in the mid 1960's.
